

Types of company structures to set up a business in Qatar

If you are concerned about company formation in Qatar, this article would be your perfect destination to end up with the online search. Company formation is quite a tiresome process especially when it comes to a foreign territory where the legal formalities lie most of the time obscure to you. That's why Helpline Group is here before you with everything in this regard.

Finding a Qatari partner to join your business and If you are concerned about company formation in Qatar, this article would be your perfect destination to end up with the online search. Company formation is quite a tiresome process especially when it comes to a foreign territory where the legal formalities lie most of the time obscure to you. That's why Helpline Group is here before you with everything in regard.

HELPLINE GROUP

FOLLOW US
f @ in

COMPANY FORMATION IN QATAR

PRO SERVICES | QFC LICENCE
100% FOREIGN OWNERSHIP LICENCE

What type of companies can open in Qatar

The legal formalities of company registration in Qatar etc. can be considered the fundamental steps in the process. But here in this article, we will be more particular about the different types of company structures to finally find out which one suits you the best or to which structure you belong.

The changing business ambience of Qatar, the favors offered by the nation to its international investors, the relaxation measures such as the 100% ownership rights provided to the foreign investors etc. make the current scenario an ideal time to invest. The promising growth of the economy will definitely ensure your personal growth and development if done in a sensible amount and in the appropriate market time.

Before actually beginning with your action plan, fix your company type or structure accordingly. Your application for the company registration in Qatar would be reviewed by an official team at the Ministry of Business and Trade. According to the structure of the company, the applicant and the company would be entitled to separate functional protocols and legal provisions.

How to register a company in Qatar

What are the difference between WLL and LLC

STARTING A COMPANY IN QATAR

Qatar, which is host to over 85 various nationalities, is routinely ranked as one of the most competitive and innovative economies in the world. With a thriving economy, the country can provide numerous prospects for your company to expand. If you are in a dilemma about how to open a company in Qatar, now is the time. The first step in starting a business in Qatar for a foreigner is to hire a service agent/sponsor. With official entities, a powerful sponsor or qualified local partner is a powerful tool. The international or domestic company must then get a commercial licence from the Ministry of Commerce and Industry (MoCI). When coming to the decision, you could often find two terms called W.L.L and L.L.C. Let's analyse what they are. WLL means "with limited liability".It can be an entity of sole proprietorship, partnership or a company.LLC means "limited liability company" - it is a company or an entity.

WLL company formation in Qatar | LLC company formation in Qatar

Open a company in Qatar

Qatar has become the most lucrative destination for foreign investors who want to set up different businesses in Qatar. The booming economy followed by liberal economic policies by the Qatari government has made Qatar the investment hub of the world. Many companies are looking for Qatari partners to open businesses in Qatar. This economic boom has also led to the rise in various employment opportunities for local as well as foreign nationals. Moreover, Qatar has relaxed its labour laws to invite more expats from foreign countries to work and stay in Qatar. As per the latest study it is estimated that expats comprise most of the population of Qatar. Therefore, the expat population plays an important role in developing the nation's economy. all of these, the remaining question is “how to open a company in Qatar”.

ASSISTANCE FOR
BUSINESS SET UP
IN QATAR, KUWAIT, BAHRAIN, UAE

+1 437-213-2154
ca@helplinegroups.com
www.helplinegroup.ca

FOLLOW US
f @ in t

How to process Business Registration in Qatar

One of the more established Arab nations, Qatar, has an atmosphere that encourages international investors to put money into a variety of companies. Qatar does not only permit a certain type of corporate entity to establish a business. The region has grown to help with the establishment of various businesses in Qatar. If you want to set up a company, this article will show you how to register a company in Qatar along with all the relevant Company registration in Qatar is not an easy task. There are several offices where you need to fill out many forms and go through various procedures. However, with the help of Qatar Helpline Group, things can get simpler and quicker with us guiding you through each step

How to register a company in Qatar

Here are some of the steps you need to do while registering a company in Qatar.

- a. Company Name Search – the first step is to choose a trading name that is unique. Make sure to research and plan before selecting the name.
- b. Opening a bank account – open a bank account before establishing a company.
- c. Articles of Association – once the bank account is opened, the foreign-owned company needs to get approval from the Articles of Association.
- d. Submitting additional documents – based on the business type, you need to also provide some additional documents to make the business legal.