ABOUT US

Yori Foods has already set benchmarks in the Kimchi market, and tops the list when people search for organic Kimchi near me. Until a few years ago, Kimchi was something that you could get from only Korean grocers. But now with online shopping facilities, this has changed considerably, and we have been able to deliver authentic Kimchi to people all over. The key to excellent Kimchi is the balance of heat, salt and lactic tang, and we have perfected that technique to create the richest and perfectly flavoured Kimchi. The multidimensional flavour of our Kimchi makes it a perfect snack, accompaniment, stir fry ingredient and as a complement to veg side dishes.
